Teacher and Student Interviews

Teacher: Mrs. McKnight

Will: Did you know there is World Teacher's Day on Oct. 5th?

Teacher: No. I did not know that

Will: How do you think we should celebrate?

Teacher: Teachers should have the off.

Student: Aleya Andrew

Will: Are you excited for Halloween?

Student: Yes!

Will: What are you going to dress up as this year?

Student: I am dressing up as a cat.

Letter from the Editor

Dear Cubs (disguised as wolves! ha!), It's Halloween again! Scare someone, dance To Triller, it's all good! Dress up as anything from a dabbing monkey to a fidget spinner! Eat 3 pounds of candy, but be sure to give me all the Kit-Kats! (Breaths) sorry, I got a little wound up. So, have a great Halloween and be sure not to eat too much!!!

Sincerely,
Will Houts

Did you know?

Will's zany facts of the month

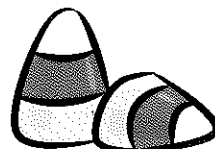

1. This tradition first appeared in the Middle Ages, when poor people would dress up and go from door to door, where they would receive a small pie in exchange for prayers. This pie was called a soul pie and it was believed that eating one would release a soul from the purgatory.
2. In America only, 3 billion dollars are spent every year on costumes and haunted house bring revenues of half of billion dollars. Let's not forget about the candy. 2 billion dollars are spent every year on candy for the trick or treaters.
